Standard Paint Finish Range

Australian Standards | Meets AS/NZ2728: 2013

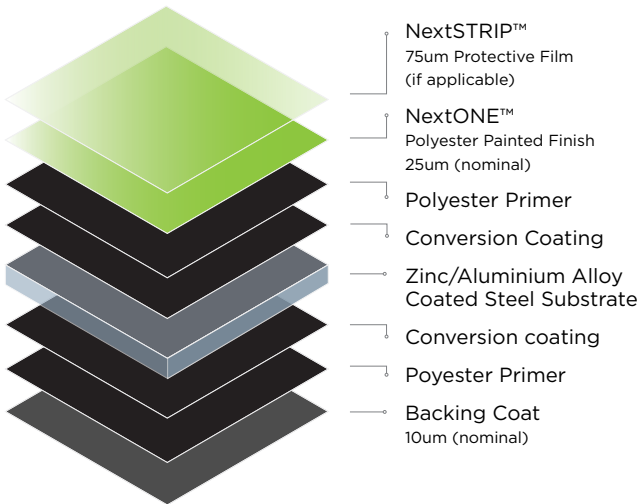

We offer you peace of mind using NextONE™, our workhorse paint system.

Our standard range utilises a polyester coil coating and a polyester primer which have been the norm for Australian conditions for many years.

It displays good workability, durability and weather resistance and is used for a variety of purposes. The end result is a good balance of exterior gloss and colour retention, good chalk resistance and overall cost effectiveness.

NextONE™, the Nexteel™ version of this workhorse paint system features a superior protective film so you don't lose time and money due to product damage.

Same same, but better.

NextONE™ Painted Finish Technology.

FAQ's

WHO IS NEXTEEL™?

Nexteel™ while being a new name in painted steel in Australia in 2019, has been operating in the eastern states for over 16 years. The new management team at Nexteel™, with a combined 100 years' steel experience, will bring further innovation to painted steel.

IS THE PRODUCT AUSTRALIAN?

Yes, Nexteel™ product is Australian made and owned. We manufacture to AS2728: 2013 which is the industry standard. We also meet NCC regulations.

WHAT COLOURS ARE AVAILABLE?

The NextONE™ range is available in 22 standard colours plus 7 matt finish colours.

WHERE IS THE PRODUCT TESTED?

The Australian climate is harsh. Our paint systems are tested in Allunga, Queensland and in New Zealand for marine testing.

WHAT WARRANTIES ARE AVAILABLE?

We offer an industry standard 36 years overall warranty on a steel substrate and the paint finish is warrantied for 20 years. Please refer to the master warranty at nexteel.com.au/warranties

HOW DO NEXTEEL™ WARRANTIES STACK UP?

Nexteel™ warranties run to industry standard. You will find, if you do a comparison, these are the same as provided by COLORBOND®.

WHERE CAN I BUY NEXTEEL™?

Nexteel™ painted steel is available either through your builder, roofer, installer or you can contact us at info@nexteel.com.au for more information.

WHY SHOULD I USE NEXTEEL™?

Good question.

First of all, the team at Nexteel™ are very highly regarded as industry experts. So much so that we have many architects and specifiers already committed to using our products exclusively.

Secondly, we have improved on the industry standard product that you've come to know and love and make a commitment to continue innovating.

We're a local company, that believes that if you build a business on pillars of high quality and innovation, that's worth supporting.

We don't rely on the Government to support us; but we've created jobs for Australians, with products for Australians.

Switch to Nexteel™. You won't look back.
